

THE FORTY SERVANTS QUICK GUIDE

For more information please go to:
www.TheFortyServants.com
www.AdventuresInWooWoo.com

The Adventurer	This Servant shows us how to have adventure and excitement. She encourages us to break out of our comfort zones by trying out new things out there in the physical world.
The Balancer	This Servant show us how to keep our lives balanced and in harmony. She encourages us to keep all areas of our lives in equal proportion.
The Carnal	This Servant show us how to feel positive about our sexuality and physical bodies. She encourages us to feel sexy, attractive and physically desired.
The Chaste	This Servant shows us that discipline and purity are also important elements of our lives. She encourages us to refrain from sexual desire and base physical pleasures and instead concentrate on a more purified existence.
The Conductor	This Servant show us how to take control of our life circumstances. He encourages us to take a more active role in orchestrating and arranging the events of our lives.
The Contemplator	This Servant show us how to access our subconscious mind. He encourages us to temporarily let go of thinking about our problems so that the subconscious mind can find a solution.
The Dancer	This Servant show us that is perfectly human to fail or come up short. She encourages us to accept that sometimes things just don't work out as planned and that's perfectly fine.
The Dead	This Servant shows us our connection to our Ancestors, and humanity's past. She encourages us to learn from the past, so that we don't make the same mistakes over and over.

The Depleted	This servant show us that all our resources have been used up in one area of our lives. It encourages us to take the time we need to replenish our stores and perhaps move in a new direction.
The Desperate	This Servant shows us that everything is currently as bad as it can get. He encourages us to recognise that the hell we are in.
The Devil	This Servant show us the beliefs we hold that restrict us and keep us from true freedom. He encourages us to realise that we have placed these binds upon ourselves and can break free whenever we want.
The Explorer	This Servant shows us how to become a better person by exploring the depths of ourselves. He encourages us to be more committed to our personal development and to find our hidden talents and potential.
The Eye	This Servant shows us that there is a divine plan to all things. It encourages us to remember that all is as it should be.
The Father	This Servant shows us tough love, guidance, and wisdom so that we can face the challenges of life for ourselves. He encourages us to learn the lessons for ourselves so that we handle future problems with greater wisdom and insight.
The Fixer	This Servant shows us that any problem can be solved if we are willing to do what is needed. He encourages us to do what must be done to get the desired outcome we seek – no matter the cost.
The Fortunate	This Servant shows us how to be happy, healthy, wealthy and wise. She encourages us to recognise just how good life can be.
The Gate Keeper	This Servant shows us how to get into areas of our life that we feel locked out of. He encourages us to know that there is always a key to every door.
The Giver	This Servant shows us all the great gifts we have received in our lives. He encourages us to remember to always be generous and grateful as today you may be the giver but tomorrow you may be the receiver.

The Guru	This Servant show us how to apply any knowledge we have gained in a practical way. He encourages us to always try to implement the lessons learned from our spiritual insights into our day to day lives.
The Healer	This Servant shows us how to heal and recover. She encourages us to always look after ourselves and others.
The Idea	This Servant show us how to be original, inventive and creative. It encourages us to see that inspiration is always around us.
The Levitator	This Servant shows us how to rise above the drama in our lives so we can stay aloof and detached. He encourages us to try to see things from a different angle.
The Librarian	This Servant shows us the theory behind the subjects that interest us. She encourages us to study, and ever increase our knowledge.
The Lovers	This Servant shows us how to love after the lust has subsided. They encourage us to connect on a deeper level with our partners so that sacred bonds are formed.
The Master	This Servant shows us how to be the best version of ourselves. He encourages us to always strive to act from our highest selves rather than our lesser natures.
The Media	This Servant shows us how to get the word out about things that are important to us. It encourages us to always remember the power of propaganda – both good and bad.
The Messenger	This Servant show us how best to communicate. It encourages us to aim to be always open to what life may be trying to tell us.
The Monk	This Servant shows us how to keep our lives simple and uncomplicated. He encourages us to spend more time in meditation, introspection and contemplation.
The Moon	This Servant shows us that which is hidden in the darkness. It encourages us to acknowledge our self-deceptions, while also being mindful of the lies told by others, and the general illusions of life.

The Mother	This Servant shows us all about fertility, security and nurturing. She encourages us to feel safe and secure and to be mindful of our general well-being.
The Opposer	This Servant shows us how we are being restricted by outside forces. He encourages us to face the opposition and restrictions imposed on us by others.
The Planet	This Servant shows us our place in creation. It encourages us to remember just how immense and awe inspiring the universe is.
The Protector	This Servant shows us how to protect ourselves and our loved ones from harm. It encourages us to value protection, security and safety.
The Protester	This Servant show us how to fight against injustice. She encourages us to speak our minds, push for what we think is right, and never back down.
The Road Opener	This Servant show us how to clear, banish and remove the obstacles in our path. He encourages us to recognise the opportunities that are appearing around us.
The Saint	This Servant show us how to ask for help. He encourages to seek out experts who are more equipped than us for the task at hand, or who can intercede on our behalf.
The Seer	This Servant shows us how to use our intuition and inner guidance system. She encourages us to always go with our gut instincts.
The Sun	This Servant shows us how to shine in all areas of our lives. It encourages us to realise the magnitude of our own energy, power, and radiance.
The Thinker	This Servant shows us how to solve problems using our analytical and rational mind. He encourages us to always go with what is logically correct rather than relying on what our hearts may be saying.
The Witch	This Servant shows us how to do sorcery and conjure. She encourages us to see the mystery and magic of life.